CITY OF IRWINDALE - WITHDRAWAL FROM
LOS ANGELES COUNTY PUBLIC (FREE) LIBRARY

This supplements our letter of January 30, 1958 to you regarding the withdrawal from the Los Angeles County Public (Free) Library System by the City of Irwindale.

On February 19, 1958, the Board of Supervisors received notice from the City "that free public library services have been established for the inhabitants of the City of Irwindale". Therefore, in view of this and the City's prior formal notification to the Board of Supervisors on January 29, 1958 of its withdrawal, our County Counsel is of the opinion that the City of Industry will not be subject to the 1958 tax levy for Los Angeles County Public (Free) Library.

In your letter of February 17, 1958 to us acknowledging receipt of our letter of January 30, 1958, you stated that "no notice of such action has been filed with this (your) office". However, Sections 22101 et seq. of the Education Code do not require a city to file notice of such withdrawal with your office. Further, our letter of January 30, 1958, containing reference to the previously filed statement for boundary description and map, was intended to constitute the filing with your office on or before February 1st required under the provisions of Sections 54900 et seq. of the Government Code.

Yours sincerely,

John A. Lambie
COUNTY ENGINEER

Dear Sir:

CITY OF IRVINDALE - WITHDRAWAL FROM
LOS ANGELES COUNTY PUBLIC (FREE) LIBRARY

On January 29, 1958, the Board of Supervisors received and filed a letter, dated January 28, 1958, from the City of Irwindale giving notice to the Board in accordance with Section 22105 of the Education Code, that the City Council no longer desires that the City of Irwindale be a part of the Los Angeles County Public (Free) Library System.

However, our County Counsel believes that, under the provisions of Sections 22101 et seq. of the Education Code, the property situated in the city continues to be subject to the County public (free) library tax until the city establishes and maintains its own municipal library or contracts with the County for library service. We shall supplement this statement when a decision has been made as to whether or not the property in the city is relieved of liability for the county public (free) library tax for 1958.

For the boundaries of the City of Irwindale to which this statement applies, reference is made to the statement, with description and map, to you from this office, dated August 15, 1957.

Yours sincerely,

John A. Lambie
COUNTY ENGINEER

Dear Sir:

INCORPORATION
CITY OF IRVINDALE

Supplementing our report to you of August 15, 1957, regarding the effect on special taxing districts of the City of Irwindale, in which we stated that this incorporation had no effect on the boundary of Duarte Sewer Maintenance District, we further report as follows:

When the City of Irwindale was incorporated a portion of Duarte Sewer Maintenance District remained in unincorporated territory and at that time we reported "No Change". Subsequently, the inclusion of the balance of this district within the boundaries of the City of Duarte, effective August 22, 1957, resulted in the district being entirely within incorporated territory and, under the provisions of Section 4925 of the Health and Safety Code, is therefore dissolved.

Yours sincerely,

Irwindale May Drop County Fire Service, Organize Own Department

4/23/61

Los Angeles Times

IRWINDALE — The City Council wants to dispense with the services of the County Fire Department here and form its own department.

"We've been getting insufficient fire protection for too high a cost," City Manager James McLean declared Wednesday. "It's a case of too little for too much."

The council voted Monday night to instruct the city attorney to "prepare enabling legislation" to put the matter to a vote of the residents at a future general election.

The council indicated it will pass the legislation at its next meeting.

Future Plans

The decision was precipitated by a report at Monday's meeting by L. B. Brewer, a division assistant chief of the County Fire Department, outlining the department's future plans.

"The nearest county fire station is in Baldwin Park," McLean said. "Since incorporation this city has paid more than $100,000 annually to the county for fire protection and they've done nothing to improve it."

Chief Brewer told The Times:

"As I told the Irwindale council, the County Fire Department has made plans to build a fire station on a county-owned lot near City Hall. Tentative plans call for construction to start early in July.

Protection Increase

"We feel that Irwindale has been given adequate protection. As the city grows and the residential areas expand we intend to increase the fire protection."

McLean said Irwindale residents paid about 53 cents per $100 of assessed valuation for fire protection last year.

"And the county proposes to raise it to 60 cents," he said. "The assessed valuation here is about $19 million because of our industrial family."

"So the county is getting additional revenue because of industry here and has done nothing to increase the fire protection, which in turn would lower the fire insurance rates.

"Nearby cities are paying much less and are getting far better protection," McLean added.

Irwindale Votes to Incorporate

Industrial City
Third in Its Area
in Three Months

IRWINDALE, July 23—
This community today became the third city formed in Northern San Gabriel Valley in the past three months.

Following the lead of nearby Duarte and Bradbury, residents of Irwindale voted 133 to 20 to incorporate as a city of the sixth class.

The new city, one of the heavy industrial centers of the valley, has an estimated population of 670, and an assessed valuation of some $8,000,000.

Voters also chose five persons to form the first City Council. Elected to the offices were Arthur Tapia, 125 votes; Elias Ornelas, 110; Mike Martinez, 98; Mike Miranda, 90, and Richard Diaz, 78.

City Manager Favored

A City Manager form of government was favored by a count of 99 to 33.

Incorporation proceedings were initiated to keep the area from being annexed by neighboring cities, said Carl Gruendler, executive secretary of Irwindale Businessmen's Association. He estimates sales tax allocations will be $250,000 a year, making it unnecessary to levy a local property tax for support of city functions.

Boundary Hearing For Irwindale Set

Hearing to establish the boundaries of the projected City of Irwindale was set yesterday by the Board of Supervisors for next March 28.

Petitioners for incorporation estimated a population of 670 for the area which is said to have a total assessed valuation of $2,988,310.

Tentative boundaries of the proposed city are the City of Azusa and Vincent Ave., on the east, Central Ave. and Foothill Blvd. on the north, Cypress Ave., plus the Cities of West Covina and Baldwin Park along with Ramona Blvd., on the south, and the San Gabriel River, the City of Monrovia and Mountain Ave., on the west.

COUNTY DECISION FAVORS IRWINDALE

Ruling and Monrovia Filings Seen as Blow to Duarte's Incorporation Hopes

Times 10-21-56

DUARTE—On the basis of a decision given by the County Counsel's office, the Irwindale incorporation filing was given precedence over boundaries sought by Duarte in a legal stalemate that affected the two communities and Monrovia.

Although technical errors were detected in both the Irwindale and Duarte boundary descriptions, the Irwindale proponents were able to correct and refile their papers before the Duarte refileing.

Announcement that Monrovia's filings may overlap two areas which local residents had hoped to hold on to was still another blow to Duarte's glimmering hopes to divorce itself from county jurisdiction.

Dep. County Counsel George W. Wakefield says a map filed recently by Duarte overlaps two filings by Monrovia, one a 35-acre tract encompassing the old Monrovia airport, and the other a 100-acre tract near it.

"If the Monrovia filings should prove to be the legal filing," said Wakefield, "they will invalidate the filing made by Duarte."

Irwindale, though overlapping the Duarte proposed map, does not overlap the proposed annexations by Monrovia.

West Covina also has announced plans to file on an area for annexation that would invalidate the Irwindale proposal, if OK'd.

West Covina Move

West Covina seeks to annex about 20 acres on the east side of Irwindale Ave., near San Bernardino Road, including property on the southwest corner of the intersection.

The proposed annexation includes a parcel along the Pacific Electric Railroad right-of-way that conflicts with the boundaries proposed for incorporation as the city of Irwindale.

Cities File Again for Land

FEAR, S.N. 10-9-56

Confusion over dates brought a return engagement today between Duarte, Irwindale and Monrovia representatives, who appeared at the Los Angeles Hall of Records this morning to file papers identical to those filed yesterday for property involved in a three-sided contest.

Official filing of either the Duarte or the Irwindale papers pends a decision by the County Counsel's office as to which group had jurisdiction.

This is expected to take several days.

Upon the official filing of papers, boundaries of the proposed incorporation areas will be "frozen" from other encroachments.

The 50-day waiting period for the Duarte incorporation ended Saturday, and leaders of all three interests were in doubt about whether yesterday or today was the correct day for filing petitions. Legal opinion indicated that Duarte was due an extra day because the Hall of Records is closed on Saturday.

Also filed today were maps and boundary lines of the proposed city of Duarte.

The Irwindale petition, filed yesterday and today, reportedly wedged into a large portion of the southeast Duarte area.

Monrovia City Council filed today after holding the shortest adjourned meeting on record—4 minutes—seeking annexation of the 40-acre Monrovia Airport property. Part of this property is owned by the Consolidated Electrodynamics Corp. and the remainder by the Southwest Products Co.

Hearing date on the annexation was set for Nov. 20 before the Board of Supervisors.

Lines Mapped Times 10-5-56 for a City of Rock Crushers

IRWINDALE, Oct. 4—Incorporation of a city containing mostly rock crushers moved a step ahead today when tentative boundary maps were sent to the Los Angeles County Boundary Commission for approval.

The area will be known as city of Irwindale if approved and is located northeast of Baldwin Park and south of Duarte.

An organization known as the Irwindale Rock Crushers Association entered the confused incorporation picture in this area. Complaint has been made against the Irwindale move by Duarte residents that it infringes on proposed boundaries of that prospective city.

Boundaries of city of Irwindale filed are Foothill Blvd., Central Ave., and Galen Ave. and Van Meter St. on the north, Baldwin Park, West Covina and Ramona Blvd. on the south, Azusa and Vincent Ave. to the east and Monrovia, San Gabriel River, Mountain Ave. and Peck Road to the west.

IRWINDALE BOUNDARIES APPROVED

County Board Rejects Plea of Pasadena

LOS ANGELES. (CNS) Boundaries for the proposed rock and gravel city of Irwindale were approved without change today by County Supervisors.

On motion of Supervisor Herbert C. Legg, the board turned down all property owners who asked to be left out of the incorporation move.

Legg said the exclusions would create "county islands" that would be difficult to police and govern.

Supervisors on Tuesday will set a date for the Irwindale election.

Chief among property owners asking to be left out of Irwindale was the city of Pasadena, which owns 9 acres in the area which it hopes to develop as a dump site.

The Pasadena property is located East of Peck road and south of Live Oak drive.

Also turned down was American Vitrified Products Co., which owns 29 acres near Crestfield drive just south of the proposed city of Duarte.

Irwindale, which includes large numbers of quarries, would have a population of 670.

BOUNDARIES TOLD

Irwindale would be bounded by Van Meter street, Galen street, Duarte road, Central avenue and Foothill boulevard on the north; Azusa and Vincent avenue on the east; Cypress avenue, West Covina, Baldwin Park and Ramona boulevard on the south; and San Gabriel River, Monrovia and Mountain avenue on the west.

Supervisor Legg expressed concern about small communities that incorporate for "specific rather than general purposes."

But Legg added he hoped the Irwindale incorporation move would succeed.

"I most sincerely hope the election will pass," Legg said. "The people will get better service if they have grass roots representation."

Chairman John Anson Ford, although he supported Legg's motion, said he hoped Irwindale voters would turn the city hood move down.

"I have a strong feeling that with all of these small cities, with irregular boundaries, we are creating a situation on which we will have future regrets."

Fritz Zapf, city engineer of Monrovia, made a last minute attempt to win exclusion of a triangular parcel east of Peck Road and west of Sawpit Wash, which he said Monrovia wanted to annex. The board denied his request.

Re: Proposed incorporation of Area known as
City of Irwindale

Gentlemen:

At the meeting held on October 3, 1956, the County Boundary Commission reviewed the boundary description submitted by you on September 17, 1956, of the area known as the City of Irwindale, proposed to be incorporated as a General Law City.

Upon recommendation of the County Engineer, slight revisions of the boundary description were made to provide the definiteness and certainty required by Section 34303.5 of the Government Code. Said revisions were in the wording of the boundary description and made no change in the location of the boundaries as shown on the map prepared by the County Engineer.

With these revisions, the County Boundary Commission approved the boundaries of the area proposed to be incorporated as the City of Irwindale. A copy of the revised approved legal description is enclosed for your use.

The County Boundary Commission wishes to inform you that portions of the boundaries as submitted conflicted with lines of ownership. These were adjusted on approval of Mr. Frank Gillelen, the Engineer concerned. At the request of the proponents the boundaries were also revised to include an area northwest of the intersection of Arrow Highway and Vincent Avenue and an area southwest of the intersection of Cypress Avenue and Irwindale Avenue.

The Commission also wishes to inform you that this incorporation overlaps both the proposed City of Duarte as approved by the Commission on August 22, 1956, and Annexation No. 20 to the City of Monrovia as approved by the Commission on September 26, 1956.

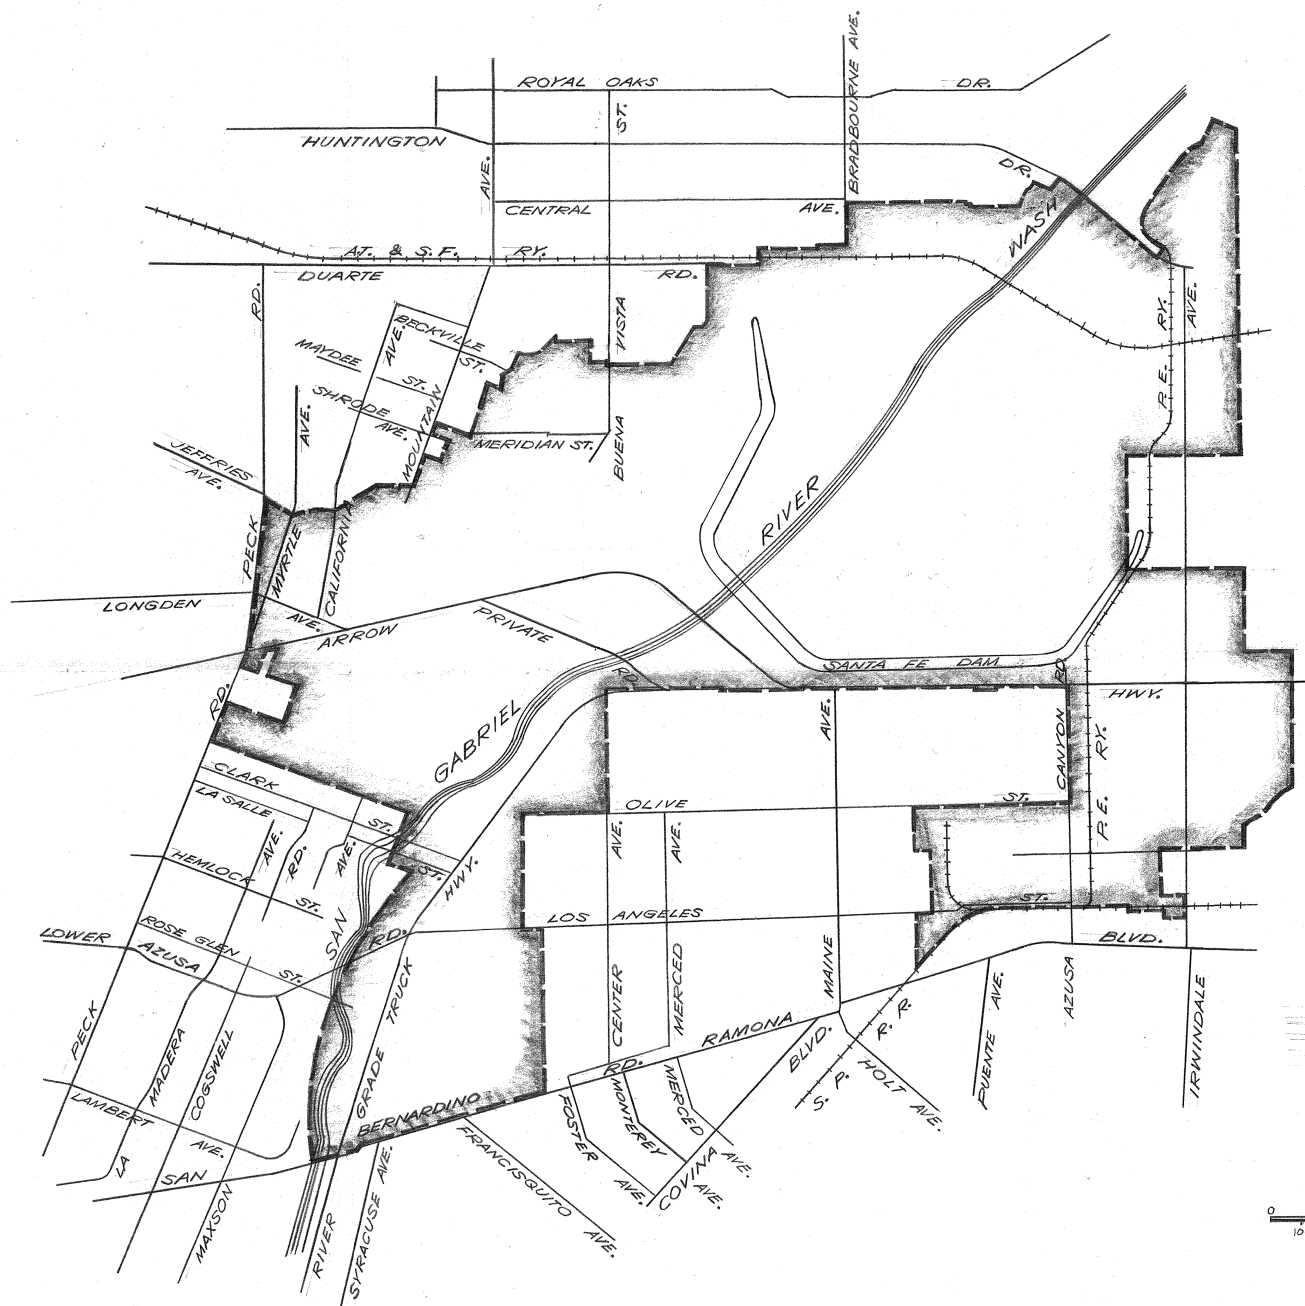

Very truly yours,
